A DAY OF PEACE AND SPIRITUAL REFLECTION AT BAPS SWAMINARAYAN AKSHARDHAM

Born from a grand vision and an ambitious plan, the magnificent BAPS Swaminarayan Akshardham stands as a hidden gem in the Garden State, nestled in Robbinsville, New Jersey.

This awe-inspiring campus is home to several architectural masterpieces, thoughtfully designed to offer a sanctuary of peace and spiritual reflection. Upon arrival, visitors are greeted by a striking 49-foot sacred image of Bhagwan Swaminarayan as a young yogi, setting the tone for the journey ahead.

As you tour through the welcome center across the ground and into the temple you will explore the meticulously carved details, majestic fountains and exquisite art work. The tour offers deep insight into the temple's architecture, its purpose, the planning process and the stories of the people it honors—highlighted by several historic artifacts on display.

Completed in 2023, the temple was brought to life by the dedication of 12,500 volunteers from diverse backgrounds, who generously donated their time, energy, and love to build this Hindu house of worship and cultural landmark that will stand for years to come.

The campus also features a gift shop and a modern, cafeteria-style restaurant serving delicious vegetarian cuisine. Prepare to be amazed as you step into a world of breathtaking beauty and serene tranquility.
