

LEXINGTON & CONCORDE'S REVOLUTIONARY STORIES

BATTLEFIELD EXPERIENCE AT LEXINGTON & CONCORDE

Dive headfirst into the very beginning of the American Revolution as you tour the Lexington and Concord Battlefields with a private guide. The Battles of Lexington and Concord took place on April 19, 1775, with Massachusetts colonists defying British authority. What started as a civil and legal argument over rights and taxation quickly escalated into an outright war in Massachusetts as the first shots rang out. The opening battle ended with a colonial victory – but that was just the beginning of a lengthy war for independence.

Explore these historic sites and more, gaining a deeper understanding of the events that sparked the American Revolution. Your guide will share detailed stories and historical facts making this tour an unforgettable experience.
